

Pam Bucy, Commissioner, Montana Department of Labor

Pam received her B.A. in Political Science/History and English from Rocky Mountain College in Billings and her Doctor of Law (J.D.) from the University of Montana School of Law in Missoula. Before her appointment by Governor Bullock to serve as the Commissioner of Labor and Industry, Pam worked as the Chief Legal Counsel and Administrative Counsel for the Department of Labor and Industry. In 2011, on behalf of the Department, Pam played an integral role in passing historic work comp reform that cut rates for businesses while maintaining protection and benefits for injured workers. Pam has practiced law in the private sector as an Associate Attorney for Luxan & Murfitt law firm. Pam started her professional career as a Deputy County Attorney for Lewis & Clark County and then moved on to work at the Montana Department of Justice as the Executive Assistant Attorney General.
